

PROVINCIAL RESOURCES

Aboriginal Friendship Centres of Saskatchewan (AFCS)

Location: Saskatoon, Saskatchewan

Email: admin@afcs.ca

Phone: 306-955-0762

Website: <https://afcs.ca/>

Not connected to a particular First Nation

Mission: The mission of the AFCS is to promote, advocate for and represent Member Friendship Centre's at the Provincial and National levels, as directed by the Centre's while respecting their autonomy, by sharing expertise, resources and exchanging ideas that will provide a forum to assist our Centre's to carry out their mandate. To maintain this by respecting our Elders, helping Aboriginal peoples through friendship, harmony, quality service, cultural integrity, and cultural awareness and sharing.

Overview: AFCS helps the Saskatchewan Centres by sharing expertise, resources and exchanging ideas that will provide a forum to assist the Centre's to carry out their mandate.

Topics covered: health, social, education, employment and training, youth, women's issues, justice and nationhood.

REGIONAL RESOURCES

All Nations Hope Network

Location: Regina, SK

Phone: 306-924-8424, 306-525-3698, 1-877-210-7622

Website: <https://allnationshope.ca/>

Not connected to a particular First Nation

Mission: All Nations Hope Network seeks to stem HIV and Hepatitis C in our Indigenous population through culturally-competent HIV and Hepatitis C prevention, education, training, awareness and support.

REGINA, SK RESOURCE GUIDE

MMIWG2S/ MAY 2022

Overview: All Nations Hope Network has been providing education, service and support to communities, families, schools and organizations in the province of Saskatchewan since 1995. All Nations Hope Network (ANHN) was established as a collective of Indigenous people, organizations and agencies who care about HIV, AIDS and Hepatitis C (HCV) among First Nations, Inuit and Métis people.

Topics covered: health support, educational resources, housing, referrals, recreation, women's group, men's group, support groups, recovery groups

Founded in 1995

Eagle Heart Centre

Location: Regina, SK

Email: admin@ehcregina.ca

Phone: 306-525-4161

Website: <https://www.afscregina.ca/>

Not connected to a particular First Nation.

Overview: Eagle Heart Centre (EHC) is dedicated to providing services that support and empower families, children and youth to attain a healthy lifestyle in the many aspects of their life including the home, at work/job, education/training, spiritual and recreations. EHC believes the importance of individual and family well-being is a foundation for both strong families, communities and economic growth.

Topics covered: family support, relationship building, youth mentoring, adult mentoring, kids care program, learning program for pre-school children

Indigenous Christian Fellowship

Affiliated with the Christian Reformed Church

Location: Regina, SK

Phone: (306) 359-1096

Website: <http://www.imcf.ca/>

Overview: Indigenous Fellowship (ICF) is a Canadian Indigenous urban ministry serving the spiritual and social needs of Indian and Metis people of Regina, Saskatchewan. Alongside the Indian Family Centre in Winnipeg and the Edmonton Native Healing Centre, ICF is one of three Urban Aboriginal Ministries of the Christian Reformed Church in North America.

REGINA, SK RESOURCE GUIDE

MMIWG2S/ MAY 2022

Topics Covered: Morning Drop-in, Soup and Bannock, Chimatawa Volunteer Program, Talking Circles, Pastoral Counselling and Referrals, Seasonal Event, Prayer Circle, Family Breakfast, Community Sharing Time, Pastoral Support, Help Out Time, Partnered Activities

Founded in 1978

Nēwo Yōtina Friendship Centre

Affiliated with Aboriginal Friendship Centres of Saskatchewan

Location: Regina, SK

Email: info@newoyotina.ca

Phone: 306-525-5042

Website: <http://www.newoyotina.ca/>

Not connected to a particular First Nation.

Overview: Nēwo Yōtina Friendship Centre is a non-profit organization that supports urban Indigenous people and families living within the City of Regina. It provides services and programming that facilitate the holistic health and growth of community members.

Topics covered: daily drop-in services, housing support, health support, youth outreach program, recreation, harm reduction

Qu'Appelle Valley Friendship Centre

Affiliated with Aboriginal Friendship Centres of Saskatchewan (Regina)

Location: Fort Qu'Appelle, SK

Email: Scote@qvfc.ca

Phone: (306) 332-5616

Website: <https://afcs.ca/centre/quappelle-valley-friendship-centre/>

Not connected to a particular First Nation

Overview: The Qu'Appelle Valley Friendship Centre (QVFC) is an incorporated not-for-profit and registered charitable, urban indigenous corporation situated in the urban indigenous community of Fort Qu'Appelle, Saskatchewan. QVFC delivers direct, partnership or indirect programming (through other key community stakeholders that rent space in the facility). Programming provided is designed to meet needs and fill in gaps in services for the local urban indigenous clientele. Clientele are indigenous people in the urban setting, with accommodation for non-indigenous individuals in an effort to improve relations and increase harmony (i.e. Friendship) between the races.

REGINA, SK RESOURCE GUIDE

MMIWG2S/ MAY 2022

Topics Covered:

- Child Nutrition Program
- Fine Option/ Community Service
- Fort Indigenous Homelessness Program
- Community Initiatives
- Crime Prevention Program

Shayil Home, Regina SK

Location: Regina, SK

Email: rescue@shrmsk.com

Phone: 306.543.0011

Website: <https://www.shrmsk.com/services/womens-addiction-program>

Mission: To Rescue people from poverty and addiction by offering the Gospel message through emergency help, such as food, clothing and shelter, and Life Changing Recovery Programs.

Topics Covered:

- Soul Sisters catering Inc
- Daycare
- Youth groups
- Affordable Housing
- Free Clothing
- Men's Emergency Shelter
- Women's Addiction Program

Founded in 1990

The Circle Project

Location: Regina, SK

Phone: Main Office 306-347-7515, Children's Centre 306-569-3988, Infant & Toddler Centre 306-949-4911

Website: <https://www.circleproject.ca/cp2015/>

Not connected to a particular First Nation.

REGINA, SK RESOURCE GUIDE

MMIWG2S/ MAY 2022

Mission: The Circle Project provides support and programs based on the Aboriginal vision of wholeness, balance, and healing. By promoting positive human development, we encourage people to help themselves through education, cultural awareness, family, and community.

Overview: Since its beginning in 1988, the Circle Project has engaged and worked with the Indigenous community, helping individuals and families reach their full potential. Individuals and families are given access to a broad range of programs and services delivered in a community setting by the Circle Project, an Indigenous organization, so that they may enjoy the benefits that are a natural outcome of education, employment, and firm attachment to the economy.

Topics covered: Family Violence Program, Lifestyles & Counselling Program, Children's Centre, Infant & Toddler Centre, Cultural Connections for Kids, Building Cultural Competency

Founded in 1988

LIST OF INDIGENOUS CHURCHES

Good News Chapel
3131 Dewdney Avenue
PO Box 4011 Stn Main, SK S4P 3R9
(306)580-0112 or (306)580-2220
<http://www.goodnewschapel.ca/>
info@goodnewschapel.ca